St. James's, October 22.

AN humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum in Common-Council aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Anthony Duncomb and Francis Kenton, Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carlton Preſident of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Madrid, Oct. 12, N. S. A Footman of the Marqueſs de Caſtelar, who had been in Priſon for ſome Time, ſent the other Day to ſpeak with the Steward of Collonel Stanhope His Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſadour here, and told him, that during the Time of his Impriſonment, and whilſt he expected to ſuffer Death, he made a Vow, that in caſe he eſcaped, he would diſcover the greateſt Piece of Villany that ever was contrived, and thereby moſt certainly ſave the ſaid Ambaſſadour's Life, and probably the Lives of many others. The Diſcovery was, that he himſelf had been concerned jointly with a French Valet de Chambre of the Ambaſſadour's in ſeveral Robberies, and particularly in two lately committed in his Excellency's own Houſe, of Silver Plates and Sconces, and that they had ſold the ſaid Things to a certain Goldſmith of this City, who was alſo in Confederacy with them. He added, that the Matter which lay upon his Conſcience was of a much higher Nature, being a Deſign laid, and ſpeedily to be executed, by the ſaid Valet de Chambre, who was to enter his Excellency's Chamber when he ſhould be aſleep, and immediately aſſaſſinate him, and afterwards carry off what they could find; with which they were to fly to Portugal. He told this whole Affair with ſo many probable Circumſtances, that his Excellency applied to have the Goldſmith and Valet de Chambre ſeized, and examined; and they have both confeſſed the Truth of every thing the Man in Priſon had alledged againſt them, excepting that the Valet de Chambre denies his having taken the Reſolution of aſſaſſinating the Ambaſſadour his Maſter.

Dublin-Caſtle, Oct. 13. The Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Revenue having laid before their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices a Letter which they had received from the Officers of the Cuſtoms at Greenock in North-Britain; their Excellencies did upon the Information therein given immediately cauſe John Caſey, who keeps the Cock Tavern in Warburgh's Street to be ſeized and examined, and with great Difficulty and after much Prevarication he was brought to diſcover where Pierce Cullen one of the Murtherers of Peter Tartoué and his Crew was concealed: And then their Excellencies cauſed the ſaid Pierce Cullen to be apprehended and ſecured in the Cuſtody of one of His Majeſty's Purſuivants: There were found upon him and in his Lodging, a Pocket Book, with ſeveral Letters, and about ſixty Pounds in Money; all which their Excellencies have ordered to be kept ſafe, and to be ſent over with him to England. Since the taking of the ſaid Pierce Cullen, their Excellencies have received Information concerning another of the Accomplices in the ſame Pyracy and Murther, whereupon they have iſſued ſuch proper Orders for apprehending him, that it is hoped they will ſucceed.

St. James's, Oct. 23. Saturday laſt being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty's Coronation, there was a very numerous and ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction at Court; and in the Evening there were Illuminations and other publick Demonſtrations of Joy throughout London and Weſtminſter.

Whitehall, October 23.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Mr. Greenwood to be Conſul at Leghorne, in the Room of Mr. Fuller, who has reſigned that Employment.
